CORAM : D. G. KARNIK, J.

DATE : SEPTEMBER 7, 2006.

P.C.

. Heard learned counsel for the Petitioner and AGP for respondent. Learned AGP states that the order has been complied and all the payment has been made. Learned counsel for the petitioner admits that payment has been received. Learned AGP states that the delay in payment was on account of want of necessary financial sanctions and was not deliberate. Learned counsel for the petitioner states that the explanation be accepted. Learned counsel for the petitioner does not press the Contempt Petition. Hence, Contempt Petition is disposed of.
